

Sinclair Broadcasting should be applauded for reporting what the mainstream media continues to push under the rug. Please let Sinclair Broadcasting exercise their freedom of speech. The FCC didn't feel it necessary to censor Michael Moore's lying "documentary", so why should you try and control this, which is the truth.

Thank you. Keep up the good work.